Date	Opponent	Result	Score	Record	GB	Stud	Comment	Dud	Comment
9/28/2014	Braves	Loss	1-2	73-89	-23.0	Cole Hamels	Had twice as many hits as any other Phillie starter, and threw 8 strong innings as well.	Dominic Brown	Ends the season wearing a sombrero.
9/27/2014	Braves	Loss	2-4	73-88	-22.0	Ryan Howard	Had 3 hits and drove in both Phillies runs.	Dominic Brown	Too many 0 for 4 games for him and all the Phillies. No wonder they have lost 88 games.
9/26/2014	Braves	Win	5-4	73-87	-21.0	Ken Giles	His ERA is down to 1.18 after his 13th hold of the season.	Chase Utley	Only Phillie starter to not reach base.
9/25/2014	Marlins	Loss	4-6	72-87	-21.5	Chase Utley	Drove in the game tying run and scored another in the Phils three run 6th inning.	Jake Diekman	Gave up four runs on five hits to earn his fourth blown save of the season.
9/24/2014	Marlins	Win	2-1	72-86	-21.0	Kyle Kendrick	Pitching perhaps his final game for the Phillies, he went seven innings, had three hits and drove in a run.	Chase Utley	He started the season hot, and is finishing it cold.
9/23/2014	Marlins	Loss	0-2	71-86	-21.5	Cole Hamels	Another strong performance on the mound and also had a base hit at the plate.	Ryan Howard	It looks like he'll finish the season with a batting average less than 0.225.
9/21/2014	Athletics	Loss	6-8	71-85	-20.5	Marlon Byrd	A pair of doubles gave him 3 RBI for the game.	AJ Burnett	Lasted just 4½ innings, walking six and allowing six runs and three hits.
9/20/2014	Athletics	Win	3-0	71-84	-19.5	Jerome Williams	Three wins against the A's in three different uniforms, all in the same season.	Ryan Howard	Goes 0 for 4, including 0 for 4 with RISP and 3 strikeouts.
9/19/2014	Athletics	Loss	1-3	70-84	-19.5	Ryan Howard	Accounted for the Phillies' only run with a 4th inning home run.	Maikel Franco	The only Phillie not to reach base in this game.
9/18/2014	Padres	Loss	3-7	70-83	-18.5	Dominic Brown	Drove in the Phils first run and had two hits in the game.	Marlon Byrd	Another hitless game with failures with men on base once again.
9/17/2014	Padres	Win	5-2	70-82	-17.5	Cole Hamels	He didn't give his home town team any breaks.	Marlon Byrd	He stranded a boat load of runners on base in this one.
9/16/2014	Padres	Loss	4-5	69-82	-18.5	Freddy Galvis	Hit a two-run homer in the fifth to give the Phillies a 3-2 lead.	AJ Burnett	He was far from sharp in taking his major league-leading 17th loss.
9/15/2014	Padres	Loss	0-1	69-81	-17.5	Jerome Williams	He limited the Padres to one unearned run, three hits and two walks in 7 2/3 innings.	Cody Asche	The Padres scored their only run on his error.
9/14/2014	Marlins	Loss	4-5	69-80	-16.5	Ryan Howard	Improved patience at the plate helped him reach base three times on the day.	Jonathan Papelbon	Bad form on the mound and walking off the mound.
9/13/2014	Marlins	Win	2-1	69-79	-15.5	Marlon Byrd	He hit an RBI double and threw out a runner at the plate to lead the Phils to victory.	Wil Nieves	He faced only 8 pitches in striking out twice and going 0 for 3.
9/12/2014	Marlins	Win	3-1	68-79	-15.5	Cody Asche	His walk-off two run homer gave the Phils the win.	Carlos Ruiz	Twice grounded into double plays and went 0-2 with runners in scoring position.
9/11/2014	Pirates	Loss	1-4	67-79	-16.5	Carlos Ruiz	Collected two hits and the Phillies only RBI.	Darren Ruf	Struck out three times in a lackluster performance.
9/10/2014	Pirates	Loss	3-6	67-78	-15.5	Cesar Jimenez	He managed his way out of a bases loaded, nobody out situation in the sixth, and pitched a scoreless seventh to boot.	Luis Garcia	Faced five batters in the sixth. Got none of them out.

9/9/2014	Pirates	Win	4-3	67-77	-15.5	Freddy Galvis	He homered, doubled, and scored the go-ahead run after an infield single and a stolen base, ending up just a triple short of a cycle.	Carlos Ruiz	An error and a GIDP were his lowlights.
9/8/2014	Pirates	Loss	4-6	66-77	-15.5	Luis Garcia	He stopped the bleeding in the 8th with two big strikeouts.	Marlon Byrd	With the tying run on base in the 8th, he couldn't come through.
9/7/2014	Nationals	Loss	2-3	66-76	-14.5	Marlon Byrd	He garnered the Phils' only hit with a runner in scoring position and didn't even get an RBI for it.	Maikel Franco	He's the franchise savior? He's batting 0.091.
9/6/2014	Nationals	Win	3-1	66-75	-13.5	AJ Burnett	Scattered six singles over seven innings allowing just one run, had a hit and scored a run to boot.	Grady Sizemore	The only Phillie to fail with runners in scoring position in this game. Usually it's just about everyone in the lineup.
9/5/2014	Nationals	Win	9-8	65-75	-14.5	Ben Revere	His ninth inning homer was only the second of his career, and a game tier.	Marlon Byrd	Goes 0 for 5 with 3 strikeouts and an error in the field.
9/3/2014	Braves	Loss	4-7	64-75	-15.5	Grady Sizemore	His two run homer in the 3rd tied up the game.	Miguel Alfredo Gonzalez	An unsuccessful major league debut for the Cuban.
9/2/2014	Braves	Win	4-0	64-74	-14.5	Kyle Kendrick	Allowed just 3 hits in 7 scoreless innings.	Jimmy Rollins	Went 0 for 5 and 0 for 2 with RISP.
9/1/2014	Braves	Win	7-0	63-74	-14.5	Cole Hamels	He worked two thirds of the Phils combined no hitter.	Ryan Howard	Outside of a meaningless bases loaded walk, he didn't do much.
8/31/2014	Mets	Loss	5-6	62-74	-15.5	Dominic Brown	Had four hits on the day including an eighth inning homer which brought the Phillies to within one run.	Chase Utley	Couldn't come through in the 7th, when the Phils were down by two and had runners on 2nd and 3rd with no one out.
8/30/2014	Mets	Win	7-2	62-73	-15.5	Ryan Howard	Came through with the bases loaded in the 6th with a two-run single.	Ben Revere	He did contribute to the Phils' 5 run 6th with a single and a run scored but he also went 0 for 3 with RISP with a GIDP.
8/29/2014	Mets	Loss	1-4	61-73	-15.5	Cody Asche	He managed the lone RBI for the Phils.	Grady Sizemore	He gifted the Mets the win with a drop of an easy fly ball.
8/27/2014	Nationals	Win	8-4	61-72	-14.5	Marlon Byrd	Three hits in the game including a homer in the 7th to give the Phils some breathing room.	Cody Asche	Only starting position player without a hit.
8/26/2014	Nationals	Win	4-3	60-72	-15.5	Ken Giles	Struck out the side in the 8th to pick up the win.	Marlon Byrd	Struck out three times, and went 0 for 4 overall.
8/25/2014	Nationals	Win	3-2	59-72	-16.5	AJ Burnett	First win since the All-Star break.	Chase Utley	Goes 0 for 4 with a GIDP.
8/24/2014	Cardinals	Win	7-1	58-72	-17.5	Jerome Williams	It looks like three is a charm for him as he is finally producing now that he is on his third team this season.	Jimmy Rollins	His late game homer was irrelevant. He played quite poorly earlier in the game when it was still in doubt.
8/23/2014	Cardinals	Loss	5-6	57-72	-17.5	Marlon Byrd	His two-run single in the 8th tied up the game.	Cody Asche	Error #13 on the season.
8/22/2014	Cardinals	Win	5-4	57-71	-16.5	Jonathan Papelbon	His ERA is down to 1.52. He deserves some credit for his recent success.	Cody Asche	Including the double play he grounded into, he was responsible for 4 outs on 7 pitches faced.
8/20/2014	Mariners	Win	4-3	56-71	-17.0	Jake Diekman	Two strong innings of middle relief helped the Phils get to the back end of the bullpen.	Darren Ruf	Never got going at the plate in this one.
8/19/2014	Mariners	Loss	2-5	55-71	-17.0	Dominic Brown	Hi RBI double in the 9th pulled the Phils to within 3.	Ben Revere	Failed to set the table in this one.
8/18/2014	Mariners	Win	4-1	55-70	-16.0	Jerome Williams	Making his second start since joining the Phillies, he allowed one run and three hits in seven-plus innings.	Chase Utley	No offensive production in this one for Utley.

8/17/2014	Giants	Loss	2-5	54-70	-16.0	Cody Asche	He reached base on all 4 of his plate appearances.	Jimmy Rollins	Had a couple opportunities to produce runs and failed both times.
8/16/2014	Giants	Loss	5-6	54-69	-15.0	Ryan Howard	With 3 hits and 3 RBI, he looked like the Ryan Howard of old.	Cody Asche	He followed up his previous big game with another big dud.
8/15/2014	Giants	Win	5-3	54-68	-14.0	Cody Asche	Hit a two-run homer in the eighth inning to tie the game and then started the decisive rally with a double to open the 10th as the Phillies rallied to beat the Giants.	Ben Revere	An 0 for 5 night without, of course, any walks.
8/13/2014	Angels	Loss	3-4	53-68	-13.5	Jimmy Rollins	His RBI single in the 4th gave the Phils an early lead.	Cody Asche	He got the American League insult of having to bat ninth and did nothing to prove he didn't deserve it.
8/12/2014	Angels	Loss	2-7	53-67	-12.5	Chase Utley	He played the role of table setter scoring one of the Phillies early runs.	Antonio Bastardo	Giving up hits and runs at an alarming rate.
8/11/2014	Mets	Loss	3-5	53-66	-11.5	Darren Ruf	His two-run homer gave the Phils a short-lived lead.	Marlon Byrd	Impatience at the plate led to and 0 for 4 performance.
8/10/2014	Mets	Win	7-6	53-65	-11.0	Chase Utley	Singled, tripled, homered, and drove in three runs to help the Phils stop a five-game skid against the Mets.	Kyle Kendrick	His struggles this season continue. The right-hander was charged with six runs -- five earned -- on 10 hits in five innings.
8/9/2014	Mets	Loss	1-2	52-65	-12.0	Cole Hamels	Continuing to dominate despite the lack of run support.	Antonio Bastardo	Gave up a run on three hits and a walk in just a third of an inning pitched.
8/8/2014	Mets	Loss	4-5	52-64	-11.0	Marlon Byrd	Had three hits including a home run and a key hit in the Phils' ninth inning rally.	Carlos Ruiz	Had a chance to tie the game for the Phils when he flew out in the 9th.
8/7/2014	Astros	Win	6-5	52-63	-11.0	Ryan Howard	He capped a five run eighth inning game winning rally with a grand slam.	Sean O'Sullivan	He managed to last 6 innings, but the 5 runs he gave up in the first 3 put the Phils in an early hole.
8/6/2014	Astros	Win	10-3	51-63	-11.0	Ben Revere	Reached based 4 times in 5 at bats.	Wil Nieves	He had a sacrifice fly in the first inning, but not much else.
8/5/2014	Astros	Win	2-1	50-63	-11.0	Ryan Howard	Came through in the clutch for the first time in like forever.	Jimmy Rollins	Was an ugly 0 for 7 including 0 for 2 with RISP.
8/3/2014	Nationals	Loss	0-4	49-63	-12.5	Cole Hamels	Went 7 strong innings without an earned run allowed.	Ken Giles	He gave up 3 runs in the eighth to close the door on any chance the Phils had to get back into the game.
8/2/2014	Nationals	Loss	0-11	49-62	-11.5	Grady Sizemore	He had two hits including one with a man in scoring position, the only such hit for the Phils on the day.	Phillipe Aument	His ERA is now 19.06. That says enough.
8/1/2014	Nationals	Win	2-1	49-61	-10.5	Roberto Hernandez	He allowed just one unearned run on five singles, and he retired the last 10 batters he faced and 17 of the last 18. Over his last four starts, he is now 3-0 with a 1.88 earned run average.	Chase Utley	Four weak at bats yielded narry a hard hit ball.
7/31/2014	Nationals	Win	10-4	48-61	-11.5	Grady Sizemore	Had three hits and three RBIs as the Phillies pounded out 17 hits.	Mario Hollands	He was entrusted with a 5-run lead and he quickly gave up 3 runs to let the Nationals back into the game.

7/30/2014	Mets	Loss	2-11	47-61	-12.5	Jimmy Rollins	His pinch hit home run was his second homer in as many days and cut the Phillies deficit to two runs.	Mario Hollands	When a shutdown inning was required, he certainly didn't deliver.
7/29/2014	Mets	Win	6-0	47-60	-11.5	Cole Hamels	Pitched eight strong innings and finally got some run support. Had two sacrifice bunts to help the offense.	Cody Asche	Will third base always be a position of weakness for the Phils?
7/28/2014	Mets	Loss	1-7	46-60	-12.5	Carlos Ruiz	Had four of the Phillies' 13 hits and their only RBI. How does a team get 13 hits and score just one run? Only the Phillies.	Ryan Howard	Goes 0 for 5 and 0 for 3 with RISP. Also had an error. What a sad excuse for a clean-up hitter.
7/27/2014	Diamondbacks	Win	4-2	46-59	-12.5	Ryan Howard	Homers in just his second game back from a three-game benching.	Marlon Byrd	Starting to fade as the dog days of summer approach.
7/26/2014	Diamondbacks	Loss	6-10	45-69	-12.5	Chase Utley	Reached base four times in five plate appearances.	Antonio Bastardo	His 10th inning implosion cost the Phillies the game.
7/25/2014	Diamondbacks	Win	9-5	45-68	-12.5	Dominic Brown	Homered, doubled, and drove in three runs for the Phils in rare of late power surge.	Jimmy Rollins	Only Phillie position player who failed to reach base.
7/24/2014	Giants	Win	2-1	44-58	-12.5	Cole Hamels	Finally starting to justify the big contract.	Ben Revere	It's hard to determine whether he is a worse leadoff hitter or a worse outfielder.
7/23/2014	Giants	Loss	3-1	43-58	-13.0	AJ Burnett	He went toe to toe with Madison Bumgardner for 8 innings only to see his hard work go for naught.	Jonathan Papelbon	Giving up the hit that lost the Phillies the game was bad enough, but the fact it was Hunter Pence he gave it up to sealed the deal on him being given the dud.
7/22/2014	Giants	Loss	6-9	43-57	-13.0	Justin DeFratus	He held the Giants scoreless in the 11th and 12th innings to keep the Phils in the game.	Cameron Rupp	An 0 for 6 night at the plate moves his batting average below the Mendoza Line.
7/21/2014	Giants	Loss	4-7	43-56	-12.0	Ryan Howard	His bases loaded single in the 4th gave the Phillies a short-lived lead.	Cliff Lee	Twice given the lead and not able to hold it either time.
7/20/2014	Braves	Loss	2-8	43-55	-11.0	Grady Sizemore	He is batting 0.417 since joining the Phils.	Kyle Kendrick	This time he made it through the first inning unscathed. It was the second and third which were the problem.
7/19/2014	Braves	Win	2-1	43-54	-10.0	Cole Hamels	Seven strong innings to pick up just his fourth win of the season.	Cameron Rupp	He stranded an insurance run on third with one out in the 8th inning via strikeout.
7/18/2014	Braves	Loss	4-6	42-54	-11.0	Ryan Howard	At least the Phillies were able to hit with men in scoring position in this one, with Howard going 1 for 1 and the team going 3 for 4 overall.	AJ Burnett	Was largely ineffective in his return from the All-Star break.
7/13/2014	Nationals	Loss	3-10	42-53	-10.0	Cody Asche	Provided two doubles in a game in which the Phillies scored 3 or fewer runs for the 49th time this season.	Mario Hollands	Allowed the Nationals to put the game out of reach in the 6th inning.
7/12/2014	Nationals	Loss	3-5	42-52	-9.0	Ben Revere	It looks like the addition of Grady Sizemore may have lit a fire under his ass.	Jake Diekman	Walked the first batter he faced which became the Nationals' winning run, then he wild pitched in another run for the Nats just for good measure.
7/11/2014	Nationals	Win	6-2	42-51	-8.0	Jimmy Rollins	Led the Phils to victory with his ninth career multi-homer game.	Ryan Howard	What's worse, his 0.225 batting average, or his sub 0.400 slugging percentage?

Date	Opponent	Result	Score	Record	GB	Stud	Comment	Dud	Comment
7/10/2014	Brewers	Win	9-1	41-51	-9.0	Jimmy Rollins	In back-to-back innings, he broke up Matt Garza's no-hit bid and a shutout.	Tony Gwynn	Goes 0 for 5 to drop his batting average to 0.165.
7/9/2014	Brewers	Win	4-1	40-51	-10.0	Roberto Hernandez	He needed just 84 pitches in eight innings to dispatch of the Brewers.	Ryan Howard	Fortunately the Phils didn't need much offense in this game, because he certainly wasn't providing any.
7/8/2014	Brewers	Win	9-7	39-51	-10.0	Chase Utley	One of his RBIs tied the game for the Phillies, and the other two each gave the Phillies leads.	Kyle Kendrick	He actually picked up the victory for Philadelphia despite giving up 11 hits and seven earned runs over 5 2/3 innings.
7/7/2014	Brewers	Win	3-2	38-51	-11.0	Jonathan Papelbon	He pitched a perfect ninth to hold a one run lead for his 20th save on the season.	Cody Asche	His error in the 5th inning led to one of the Brewers' two runs.
7/6/2014	Pirates	Loss	2-6	37-51	-12.0	Marlon Byrd	He gave the Phillies a short-lived lead with an RBI single in the first.	Jake Diekman	His late inning ineptitude killed any chance of a comeback for the Phillies.
7/5/2014	Pirates	Loss	2-3	37-50	-12.0	Ken Giles	The much ballyhooed fireballer tosses and inning and a third of perfect ball with two strikeouts.	Cameron Rupp	The only Phillie position player in the starting lineup to not reach base.
7/4/2014	Pirates	Loss	2-8	37-49	-11.0	Chase Utley	Had one of the Phillies two hits, and their only RBI.	Roberto Hernandez	Gave up 4 runs in the first inning, all with two out.
7/3/2014	Marlins	Win	5-4	37-48	-10.0	Kyle Kendrick	He went seven strong innings with only 2 runs allowed, and had a single at the plate to boot.	Jake Diekman	He got the win despite giving up 2 runs in the 8th and costing the Phillies the lead.
7/2/2014	Marlins	Loss	0-5	36-48	-10.5	Jimmy Rollins	Only Phillie with multiple hits in this game. Also had a stolen base.	Chase Utley	His average is now lower than Ben Revere's.
7/1/2014	Marlins	Loss	4-5	36-47	-9.5	Marlon Byrd	He started the 8th inning rally with another home run.	Ryan Howard	If there is a worse clean up hitter in the National League, the Phillies will surely be trading for him this off-season.
6/29/2014	Braves	Loss	2-3	36-46	-8.0	Marlon Byrd	His 14th and 15th homers of the season were the entirety of the Phillies offense.	Ryan Howard	Another ineffective game from the Phillies clean up hitter as the Braves finish a four game sweep in Philadelphia for the first time since the historic 1964 season.
6/28/2014	Braves	Loss	1-5	36-45	-7.0	Cameron Rupp	Had two hits including a double, and scored the Phils' only run.	Cody Asche	Missed an opportunity to put some runs on the board with a pivotal 6th inning pop out.
6/28/2014	Braves	Loss	3-10	36-44	-6.0	Tony Gwynn	Had a pair of hits and a run scored for the slumping Philles.	Antonio Bastardo	The game was still within reach when he gave up five 8th inning runs.
6/27/2014	Braves	Loss	2-4	36-43	-5.0	Ben Revere	Three hits, including a triple, to pace the Phillies' offense	Ryan Howard	Had a chance to win the game for the Phils in the 8th inning but failed in that opportunity as he failed in every other opportunity at the plate as well.

Date	Opponent	Result	Score	Record	GB	Stud	Comment	Dud	Comment
6/26/2014	Marlins	Win	5-3	36-42	-5.0	Chase Utley	His two run homer in the bottom of the 14th inning was one of the few chances the Phils didn't squander.	John Mayberry, Jr.	Struck out twice before making an early exit.
6/25/2014	Marlins	Loss	2-3	35-42	-6.0	Marlon Byrd	Had three hits and a run scored to lead the Phillies offense.	Cody Asche	Saw 5 pitches in 4 fruitless at bats.
6/24/2014	Marlins	Win	7-4	35-41	-6.0	Jimmy Rollins	Reached base all four times he came to the plate.	BJ Rosenberg	Evidently the Phils recycle their trash.
6/23/2014	Marlins	Loss	0-4	34-41	-6.0	Cody Asche	His double in the fourth would have been and RBI double had anyone other than Ryan Howard been on base at the time. Even Pat Burrell would have scored.	Carlos Ruiz	Twice grounded into inning killing double plays.
6/22/2014	Cardinals	Loss	3-5	34-40	-5.0	Cody Asche	Drove in all three Philadelphia runs with a bases-loaded double in the second.	Jimmy Rollins	His hitting streak comes to an end along with his streak of 39 dud-less games.
6/21/2014	Cardinals	Loss	1-4	34-39	-4.0	Cole Hamels	He gets this stud for his hitting as much as his pitching.	Marlon Byrd	Colder than a penguin.
6/20/2014	Cardinals	Win	5-1	34-38	-3.5	AJ Burnett	He was tough on Cardinals hitters in a rare complete game.	Cody Asche	His return from the DL wasn't a successful one.
6/19/2014	Cardinals	Win	4-1	33-38	-4.0	David Buchanan	He made his deepest start yet, throwing 105 pitches, and keeping the Cardinals off balance and off the scoreboard until the eighth.	John Mayberry, Jr.	Hopefully an 0 for 4 night at the plate doesn't prompt the return of Ben Revere.
6/18/2014	Braves	Win	10-5	32-38	-5.0	Marlon Byrd	His hustle play to beat out an infield single in the 2nd inning gave the Phillies the lead and kept the inning alive for two more runs to eventually score.	Ben Revere	His appearance as a pinch hitter in this game is an unfortunate indicator that he will most likely be returning to the starting line-up soon.
6/17/2014	Braves	Win	5-2	31-38	-5.0	Ryan Howard	With his second homer in as many games, and a pair of walks, he is starting to look like a guy pitchers fear once again.	Marlon Byrd	His drop of a fly ball in the 7th almost opened up the flood gates for the Braves to get back into the game.
6/16/2014	Braves	Win	6-1	30-38	-5.5	Ryan Howard	Good things often happen when you make contact.	Jonathan Papelbon	He was the weak link out of the bullpen for a change.
6/15/2014	Cubs	Loss	0-3	29-38	-6.5	Ken Giles	He came in and threw strikes, which is more than you can say about most of the Phillies relievers.	Chase Utley	His early season flirtations with 0.400 seem like something from the distant past.
6/14/2014	Cubs	Win	7-4	29-37	-5.5	Dominic Brown	His three run homer in the fifth was the winning margin. Honorable mention to Jimmy Rollins for the Phillies all-time hits record.	Ryan Howard	Saw two or fewer pitches in 3 of his 4 at bats.
6/13/2014	Cubs	Loss	1-2	28-37	-6.5	Dominic Brown	Kept the game alive with a 2-out RBI in the 9th.	Chase Utley	The Phillies only 0.300 hitter is in danger of losing that distinction.

Date	Opponent	Result	Score	Record	GB	Stud	Comment	Dud	Comment
6/12/2014	Padres	Win	7-3	28-36	-6.5	Reid Brignac	Second straight game with the winning hit. Honorable mention goes to John Mayberry, Jr. who had a couple of big hits.	Wil Nieves	He twice grounded out with a runner on third base and fewer than two outs. The runner was gunned down at the plate in each case.
6/11/2014	Padres	Win	3-0	27-36	-7.5	Cole Hamels	He struck out a season-high 11 and allowed five hits in eight shutout innings for the Phillies. Honorable mention to Reid Brignac for his game winning walk off homer.	Marlon Byrd	He was striking out at a pace that made you think he was trying to catch Ryan Howard for the league lead in strikeouts.
6/10/2014	Padres	Win	5-2	26-36	-7.5	Marlon Byrd	His three-run home run was the winning margin.	Dominic Brown	He has avoided dropping below the Mendoza Line, but he hasn't done much else.
6/8/2014	Reds	Loss	1-4	25-36	-7.0	Antonio Bastardo	Evidently he is better at maintaining deficits than he is at holding leads.	Cesar Hernandez	Is it Maikel Franco time yet?
6/7/2014	Reds	Loss	5-6	25-35	-7.0	Jimmy Rollins	A big two-run homer to get the Phils within a run of the lead has him just six hits away from breaking Mike Schmidt's club record for all time hits.	Roberto Hernandez	Winless in his last 7 starts with an 0-3 record over that span.
6/6/2014	Reds	Win	8-0	25-34	-7.0	Cole Hamels	He improved to 10-0 in 13 career appearances against the Reds, holding them to three runs or less each time.	Marlon Byrd	Has been struggling as of late.
6/5/2014	Nationals	Loss	2-4	24-34	-7.0	John Mayberry, Jr.	Second straight game with a home run, this time as a starter.	Dominic Brown	Saw a total of 6 pitches in his 3 fruitless at bats.
6/4/2014	Nationals	Loss	4-8	24-33	-6.5	John Mayberry, Jr.	With 3 pinch hit homers, he has been the Phils' best pinch hitter this season by a large margin, and he had another great pinch hit performance in this game with a 2 run home run.	AJ Burnett	He pitched the fourth inning like he was in a walk off situation and it burned him. In the sixth inning he just downright sucked.
6/3/2014	Nationals	Loss	0-7	24-32	-6.5	Reid Brignac	It's a sad state of affairs when one extra base hit wins you the stud vote.	David Buchanan	At least he gave the Phils 6 innings.
6/2/2014	Mets	Loss	2-11	24-31	-6.5	Reid Brignac	He had a couple of hits early in the game when the outcome was still in doubt.	Chase Utley	His error in the 6th allowed the Mets to put the game out of reach.
6/1/2014	Mets	Loss	3-4	24-30	-6.0	Ryan Howard	His early home run gave the Phillies the lead, which of course they weren't able to hold onto.	Phillipe Aument	New arm in the bullpen - same result.
5/31/2014	Mets	Loss	4-5	24-29	-5.0	Ryan Howard	His 3-run homer in the 7th inning got the Phillies back into the game.	Antonio Bastardo	He started the 14th inning by walking a 0.227 hitter with 4 career home runs, and predictably he became the winning run.
5/30/2014	Mets	Win	6-5	24-28	-4.0	Reid Brignac	His first start for the Phillies ended with him being mobbed by his teammates.	Ryan Howard	An 0 for 7 night is never pretty no matter how you slice it.
5/29/2014	Mets	Loss	1-4	23-28	-4.0	Marlon Byrd	He accounted for the Phillies only run with his 7th home run of the season.	Ryan Howard	Four times to the plate, four times down on strikes.

5/28/2014	Rockies	Win	6-3	23-27	-4.0	Ryan Howard	Belted his fifth career walk-off homer in the bottom of the ninth to give the Phils a much needed series victory.	Carlos Ruiz	It was a rough night for the Phils' catcher who went 0 for 4 at the plate and committed an error in the field.
5/27/2014	Rockies	Loss	2-6	22-27	-5.0	Darren Ruf	He displayed his much needed power with a fourth inning homer.	Jeff Manship	He left a close game get out of hand by allowing 2 eighth inning runs.
5/26/2014	Rockies	Win	9-0	22-26	-5.0	Ryan Howard	Went 2 for 2 with RISP and 3 for 3 with runners on base - that's a departure from the norm. Honorable mention goes to Kyle Kendrick who went 6 and 2/3 shutout innings to break his personal 10 game losing streak.	Cesar Hernandez	Unable to move runners let alone drive them in.
5/25/2014	Dodgers	Loss	0-6	21-26	-6.0	Jeff Manship	He threw two no-hit innings for the Phils. Burnett struggled on the mound, and the Phillies line-up was no-hit, so he gets the stud by default.	Ryan Howard	Had a critical error in the field and was worse than pathetic at the plate.
5/24/2014	Dodgers	Win	5-3	21-25	-5.0	Ben Revere	His recent benching motivated him to a 4-hit game.	Dominic Brown	The only thing keeping his batting average above 0.200 was an early game exit due to back spasms.
5/23/2014	Dodgers	Loss	0-2	20-25	-6.0	Mario Hollands	Came in during the 7th inning with runners on 1st and 3rd and one out, and escaped the jam with just two pitches thrown.	Marlon Byrd	The Phillies had ample men on base, but the middle of the order "led" by Byrd failed to drive them in.
5/22/2014	Marlins	Loss	3-4	20-24	-5.0	Marlon Byrd	His two-run eighth inning homer tied the game and gave the Phils a chance to win.	Jake Diekman	Another late inning failure for the Phillies bullpen.
5/21/2014	Marlins	Loss	5-14	20-23	-4.0	Marlon Byrd	Had a couple of hits, a run scored, and an RBI, all in the early innings, when the game was still in doubt.	Kyle Kendrick	Has now lost his 10th consecutive decision. They haven't all been his fault, but this one certainly was.
5/20/2014	Marlins	Win	6-5	20-22	-4.0	Jimmy Rollins	Homered for the second game in a row to put the Phillies ahead to stay.	Carlos Ruiz	Rollins was getting on base in front of him, but he was failing to move him or drive him in.
5/18/2014	Reds	Win	8-3	19-22	-3.5	Jimmy Rollins	If Sandberg puts Revere back into the lineup he should be fired. If he puts Revers back into the leadoff spot, he should be flogged with a maple bat and then fired.	Dominic Brown	His one game offensive outburst appears to be more of an anomaly than a trend.
5/17/2014	Reds	Win	12-1	18-22	-3.5	Cody Asche	He snapped Philadelphia's 23-inning scoreless streak with a two-run double that sparked a six-run fourth. Honorable mentions go to Dominic Brown for his first multiple extra base hit game of the season, and to Cole Hamels for seven strong innings giving his 100th career victory.	Chase Utley	In a game where everyone contributed to the victory, his inability to the runners on first and second in the first inning was the most egregious error.
5/16/2014	Reds	Loss	0-3	17-22	-4.5	Cody Asche	The only Phillie with an extra base hit in this game.	Ryan Howard	His offensive ineptitude is a major reason why the Phillies haven't scored a run in the last 20 innings and were shut out for the fifth time this season.
5/14/2014	Angels	Loss	0-3	17-21	-4.5	Chase Utley	Two more doubles on the night give him the league lead in that category.	Dominic Brown	At 0.221, his average is beginning to approach Mendoza Line.

5/13/2014	Angels	Loss	3-4	17-20	-4.5	Chase Utley	The second baseman's numbers have fallen back to earth a bit after a scorching start to the season, but still owns an impressive .338/.399/.559 stat line, each the best at the position.	Cody Asche	Not only can the Phillies not hit in the clutch, they can't field in the clutch either, as evidenced by Asche's 3 errors under critical circumstances in the 6th and 7th innings.
5/11/2014	Mets	Loss	4-5	17-19	-4.0	Cole Hamels	He battled for 7 innings, throwing a ridiculous 133 pitches (ridiculous in today's world, not by historical standards) and really deserved to get his 100th victory.	Antonio Bastardo	Roberto Hernandez gets "credit" for the blown save, but Bastardo was the main culprit for the 9th inning debacle.
5/10/2014	Mets	Win	5-4	17-18	-3.0	Jimmy Rollins	He had 5 quality plate appearance resulting in 4 times on base, and 4 runs scored, including the game winner.	Marlon Byrd	One of the few times he has failed to come through even once.
5/9/2014	Mets	Win	3-2	16-18	-3.0	Jonathan Papelbon	Has not allowed a run in 13 straight appearances, collecting 10 saves along the way.	Jimmy Rollins	Went 0 for 4 at the plate with 3 strikeouts and an error in the field.
5/8/2014	Blue Jays	Loss	6-12	15-18	-4.0	Marlon Byrd	Batting 0.480 in his last 25 at bats. Had two more hits in this game and scored the Phils' first run.	AJ Burnett	The hernia must have affected his ability to pitch effectively.
5/7/2014	Blue Jays	Loss	0-10	15-17	-3.0	Marlon Byrd	Had 67% of the Phillies' hits in this game.	Carlos Ruiz	Went 0 for 4 at the plate, but were he really failed was his inability to settle down the Phils' pitching staff in the Blue Jays big 7th inning.
5/6/2014	Blue Jays	Loss	5-6	15-16	-2.5	Cody Asche	He made some big time contact with the ball in this one, belting his first career grand slam and his first career 4 hit game.	Ben Revere	RD3's dog has a better arm than him. Juan Francisco's game winning sacrifice fly looked like something out of a little league game. His throw to home from 150 feet had to be cut off and it was extremely off line. And he didn't help his cause at the plate either, going 0 for 5, and 0 for 2 with RISP.
5/5/2014	Blue Jays	Loss	0-3	15-15	-2.0	Marlon Byrd	Since Chase Utley has cooled off, Marlon has been the Phillies' only consistent hitter.	Ryan Howard	Surprisingly it has taken 30 games for him to pick up his first dud of the season.
5/4/2014	Nationals	Win	1-0	15-14	-1.5	Roberto Hernandez	More fist pumps than base runners allowed in 7 1/3 innings pitched. That's big in our book. He also completed a successful sacrifice bunt.	Marlon Byrd	The middle third of the Phillies order went a combined 0 for 9, with 4 strikeouts and did not reach base even a single time. At least Howard worked counts and Ruiz had some lead saving blocks behind the plate.
5/3/2014	Nationals	Win	7-2	14-14	-2.5	Ryan Howard	His 3-run blast in the first inning would be all the Phils needed. Honorable mentions to Jimmy Rollins who had 4 hits, Marlon Byrd who had 2 hits and 2 RBI, and AJ Burnett who had another quality start.	Cody Asche	This was a tough luck dud as he did homer in the game, but every other position player was either on base at least twice or had an extra base hit. His 9th inning error and overall shaky play in the field was the deciding factor.
5/2/2014	Nationals	Loss	3-5	13-14	-3.5	Marlon Byrd	Jason Werth's dropped foul ball gave him second life, and he took advantage to the tune of a 3-run first inning homer.	Dominic Brown	As much as I dislike F.P. Santangelo, he got it right when he said that the league has figured out Dominic Brown.
4/29/2014	Mets	Loss	1-6	13-13	-4.5	Marlon Byrd	His 4th inning homer pulled the Phillies to within 3-1, but unfortunately that was all the offense could muster on the night.	Cole Hamels	He is now 2-8 in his last 10 home starts against the Mets.
4/27/2014	Diamondbacks	Win	2-0	13-12	-4.5	AJ Burnett	He gave the Phils a great finish to a good road trip, allowing five hits in eight sharp innings for his first win of the season.	Cody Asche	The good news is that he faced 4 pitches per at bat - which is 3 pitches per at bat greater than his typical performance.

4/26/2014	Diamondbacks	Win	6-5	12-12	-4.5	Carlos Ruiz	He was a big part of the Phils offensive rally but his hustle play behind the plate in the bottom of the ninth sealed the deal for his selection as stud.	Freddy Galvis	Now 0 for his last 21 at bats. He went 0 for 3 with RISP in this one and 0 for 5 overall.
4/25/2014	Diamondbacks	Loss	4-5	11-12	-4.5	Marlon Byrd	He had big hits in both the 7th and 8th innings.	John Mayberry, Jr.	His inability to go first to third on Marlon Byrd's base hit in the eighth may have cost the Phils' a run. His strikeout in the ninth ended the Phils' final rally.
4/24/2014	Dodgers	Win	7-3	11-11	-3.5	Carlos Ruiz	He completes a big series with a game winning RBI. Honorable mention goes to Marlon Byrd who had 3 hits and 4 RBIs.	Freddy Galvis	He makes Jayson Nix (who should not be on a big league roster) look like the second coming of Rogers Hornsby.
4/23/2014	Dodgers	Loss	2-5	10-11	-4.0	Cole Hamels	His first start of the season was a solid one and he went 1 for 2 from the plate. An honorable mention goes to the much beleaguered Jayson Nix for homering in his only at bat.	Marlon Byrd	The big off-season acquisition went 0-4 with two k's in this game and is now hitting a torrid 0.238 this season.
4/22/2014	Dodgers	Win	3-2	10-10	-3.0	AJ Burnett	Goes 3 for 3 at the plate and had a solid start only giving up 2 runs in 6.2 innings of work. Since being diagnosed with an inguinal hernia, his ERA has been 1.32, and he is batting 0.800.	Jimmy Rollins	Even Tom McCarthy can go 0 for 5 / 0 for 3 with RISP.
4/21/2014	Dodgers	Win	7-0	9-10	-4.0	Cliff Lee	Los Angeles was flummoxed, eking out four singles and zero walks against the perennial Cy Young contender. Honorable Mention to Carlos Ruiz and his first 4 RBIs of the season.	Freddy Galvis	His early season slugging percentage is just 0.077.
4/20/2014	Rockies	Win	10-9	8-10	-4.0	Ryan Howard	Only the official scorer prevented him from hitting for the cycle. Honorable mention goes to Jimmy Rollins who had a couple of very key hits.	Jake Diekman	He was owed a dud from last Monday. This one doesn't technically go down as a blown save, but his performance was just as egregious none-the-less.
4/19/2014	Rockies	Loss	1-3	7-10	-5.0	Jimmy Rollins	Had two hits and the Phillies only RBI.	Dominic Brown	His GDP with the bases loaded in the fourth inning ended the Phillies best threat of the night.
4/18/2014	Rockies	Loss	1-12	7-9	-4.0	Mike Adams	He showed good form with a perfect inning while the game was essentially still in doubt.	Jonathan Pettibone	The marathon at bat for Troy Tulowitzki in the first was a microcosm for Pettibone's entire game. He battled hard, but in the end was beaten badly.
4/17/2014	Braves	Win	1-0	7-8	-3.0	AJ Burnett	Pretty impressive performance on a cool day with a groin injury.	Jayson Nix	He doesn't deserve to be in the big leagues.
4/16/2014	Braves	Loss	0-1	6-8	-4.0	Cliff Lee	He pitched a masterful game. The only run he allowed came on a solo home run which was only a few feet from being a fly ball out.	Marlon Byrd	Went 0 for 3 with 2 woeful K's and he only saw 9 pitches.
4/14/2014	Braves	Loss	6-9	6-7	-3.0	Dominic Brown	His three-run homer capped a five-run bottom of the eighth that gave the Phillies a 6-5 lead.	BJ Rosenberg	If here were eligible to receive it, we'd be giving Ruben Amaro, Jr. the dud here for the overall ineptitude of the Phillies' bullpen. Jake Diekman was bad, but Rosenberg was historically inept.
4/13/2014	Marlins	Win	4-3	6-6	-2.0	Chase Utley	Still flirting with 0.500 and he had an RBI stolen from him when the plate was (illegally) blocked. Earning honorable mentions were Nieves, Rosenberg, and Papelbon.	Jimmy Rollins	He responds to being the hero of Saturday night's game with an 0 for 5 performance.

4/12/2014	Marlins	Win	5-4	5-6	-2.0	Jimmy Rollins	His walk-off home run came in response to a heckler. We need to heckle him more often. Honorable mentions go to Chase Utley who is flirting with a 0.500 average, and BJ Rosenberg who pitched a perfect top of the 10th inning for the win.	Justin DeFratus	His blown opportunity to hold a two-run lead earned him not only the dud for this game, but also a demotion to the minors.
4/11/2014	Marlins	Win	6-3	4-6	-3.0	Jake Diekman	Relieved Burnett and wiggled out of a bases-loaded, one-out jam by striking out the only two batters he faced.	AJ Burnett	In his last two starts, he has walked 12 in only 10 innings. In this one, he gave up two runs and left with the bases loaded after only four and a third innings.
4/10/2014	Brewers	Loss	2-6	3-6	-4.0	Marlon Byrd	Drove in both Phillies runs with a long home run and a seeing eye single.	Ben Revere	An effective lead off hitter can't be striking out three times.
4/9/2014	Brewers	Loss	4-9	3-5	-3.0	Carlos Ruiz	Has been getting on base at a 0.394 clip thus far this season.	Antonio Bastardo	Granted Ryan Howard's error in the 8th didn't help, but the bottom line is the winning run reached base via a walk.
4/8/2014	Brewers	Loss	4-10	3-4	-2.0	Jimmy Rollins	Has been the Phils' most consistent run producer so far this year.	Kyle Kendrick	Ryan Braun was on a different kind of PEDs today (Phillies' Effectiveness Deliverers).
4/6/2014	Cubs	Loss	3-8	3-3	-1.5	Jimmy Rollins	Went 1 for 3 with RISP. The rest of the team was 0 for 12. Honorable mention goes to Ryan Howard for not striking out.	AJ Burnett	He severely hampered the Phillies' chances by walking 6 and giving up some key base hits. Dishonorable mention goes to Ryan Howard, who, even though he didn't strike out, still went 0 for 5 and 0 for 4 with RISP.
4/5/2014	Cubs	Win	2-0	3-2	-1.5	Chase Utley	Great home run, hits and hustle! Cliff Lee earns an honorable mention, but his egregious start to the season is why we give the nod to Utley.	Jimmy Rollins	The Phils would have been just as well off had he remained in Philadelphia another day.
4/4/2014	Cubs	Win	7-2	2-2	-1.5	John Mayberry, Jr.	He is now 2 for 2 as a pinch hitter with a double, a home run and 4 RBI. His homer today provided 2 important insurance runs which we know are critical given the state of the Phillies bullpen.	Jayson Nix	Fortunately Jimmy Rollins comes back tomorrow.
4/2/2014	Rangers	Loss	3-4	1-2	-1.5	Kyle Kendrick	The man looked like Roy Halladay out there (the good Roy Halladay). Honorable mention goes to Ryan Howard who was able to manage his first home run of the season in between strikeouts.	Jonathan Papelbon	Hopefully the Phils left him behind in Texas.
4/1/2014	Rangers	Loss	2-3	1-1	-1.0	AJ Burnett	He suffered the standard indoctrination for a Phillies starter in his first game - the blown save. Honorable mention goes to Marlon Byrd who displaced Ryan Howard from the clean up spot for the first time in 665 games, and not only did the world not come to an end, both he and Howard had key hits.	Jake Diekman	For the season, this guy has given up 3 hits, 2 walks, and 3 earned runs in just 2 innings pitched. Dishonorable mentions go to Ryan Howard for his woeful attempts to swing and to Ben Revere for getting picked off second base in the 6th inning.

3/31/2014	Rangers	Win	14-10	1-0	---	Jimmy Rollins	He didn't travel with the team since his wife is expecting their second child any day, and that grand slam was the icing on the cake as his 200th career homerun. Honorable mentions go to Ben Revere, Cody Asche, and Jeff's boy, John Mayberry, Jr.	Cliff Lee	The last time a Phillies pitcher gave up 8 runs and still got the win was in 1981 when Dick Ruthven did it.
