Commentary:

Congratulations to James for winning his first ever Gore Fantasy Tour de France Contest! I guess we'll be having Popeye's at the Auction next year!!!

James only purchased four riders in the auction and was left with only 9 auction dollars, but those four riders all finished the contest in the Top 8 of total points. They call that a bargain.

Despite an error in his waiver submission, Raj was able to maintain second place. This is the third time Raj has finished second in the last four years and his fifth straight year in the Top 4.

Greg completes the podium with a third place finish and no excuses about his draft position.

The Grove family captured the remaining jerseys, Ryan winning White by just 401 points over Brian, and Corie winning Pink by just 315 points over Sarah.

Thanks everyone for your participation in this year's contest. I think it was the best ever and can't wait until next year!
